Michigan Partners Eads & Dolin Selected by DBusiness Magazine as 2010 Top Lawyers

From administrative law to zoning, DBusiness Magazine featured the 2010 Top Lawyers in the Metro Detroit area in its November/December issue. Among the lawyers recognized as insurance defense lawyers with highly ethical and pre-eminent legal abilities, were our Michigan partners, John T. Eads and Mark L. Dolin.

John Eads has handled high exposure medical malpractice, professional liability and major injury trucking cases for the past 18 years. He also handles general liability, commercial business, employment dispute, contract actions and municipal/school liability cases. He has participated in oral arguments before the Michigan Supreme Court in trucking injury accident cases and has tried numerous cases to verdict for clients including insurers, commercial businesses, and trucking companies.

Mark Dolin has handled a variety of insurance defense matters including personal injury, professional liability, medical malpractice, catastrophic claims, Michigan No-Fault, coverage, and automobile liability cases. He has extensive trial experience in personal injury, medical and dental malpractice litigation and professional negligence-related areas and has tried cases to verdict in Illinois State Court and Illinois Federal Court, Michigan State Court and Michigan Federal Court.

The list of top lawyers was created by tapping LexisNexis database of Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Rated attorneys to identify those who have received an “AV” rating — the highest Peer Review Rating available. These ratings reflect the confidential opinions of members of the bar and judiciary.

*Kopka, Pinkus, Dolin & Eads is a multi state civil litigation defense firm that approaches litigation from the client’s perspective.
