KPDE Opens New Office in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan

Sault Ste. Marie, MI – Kopka, Pinkus, Dolin & Eads is pleased to announce the opening of their seventh office located in Sault Ste. Marie. Adding the office in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, coupled with their Farmington Hills office allows KPDE to grow their litigation practice and enhance their service to all counties in Michigan. Angela Harmon-Kuhl, an equity partner with the firm, and her family moved from Clarkston so that Angela can manage the Sault Ste. Marie office. Her son started at Lake State Superior University this year and runs for Lake State's cross country/track teams. Angela's daughter attends Central Michigan University.

Angela attended Thomas M. Cooley law school in the evening and weekends, while working full-time. She has been working in the legal field since 1987. She has broad experience in civil litigation and regularly proceeds to trial. Her experience includes automobile negligence, premises liability, errors and omissions, product liability, first-party insurance, general liability, dog bite cases, personal injury defense, insurance fraud, defending homeowner's and condominium associations, and "toxic mold" cases. Angela received a no cause verdict in Macomb County when four Plaintiffs claims they suffered personal injury as a result of mold. In 2007, The Michigan Trial Reporter announced a no cause verdict in a PIP case she proceed to trial in Detroit, Michigan. She has also obtained a no cause verdict in Oakland County wherein the Plaintiff, pedestrian, claimed an insured ran over the Plaintiff with a motor vehicle. Angela prides herself as being an aggressive litigator and negotiator. She is a member of the 50th Judicial Circuit Bar Association, and is a member of the Insurance Institute of Michigan.

Angela and her family are excited to start their new chapter in Sault Ste Marie. For more information regarding KPDE, please visit www.kopkalaw.com.
